Organizational Context and Scope

The International Organization for Migration (IOM) is committed to the principle that humane and orderly migration benefits migrants and society. As the leading UN Migration Agency, IOM acts with its partners in the international community to: assist in meeting the growing operational challenges of migration management; advance understanding of migration issues; encourage social and economic development through migration, and uphold the human dignity and well-being of migrants.

The Roots project, implemented by IOM with the funding of USAID directly supports the objectives of the Government of Guatemala and the United States to promote synergies between labour migration and development, and to promote legal avenues of labour migration as an alternative to irregular migration. Moreover, this programme aims to facilitate the development of policies and programmes that are in the interest of migrants and society, providing effective protection and assistance to labour migrants and their families.

Under the overall supervision of the Deputy Chief of Party, and the direct supervision of the National Project Officer (MINTRAB Support), the successful candidate will be responsible for the implementation of all Roots project activities related to providing support to MINTRAB on Governance and Operational Efficiency as per the detailed tasks delineated below:
